

April 7, 1994

LB 667, 988A

LB 667, so all this amendment does, it says if LB 667 passes today that that which is changed and that which we changed in 91 (sic) will stay as they are and that this 988A will actually have precedence and it rewrites it so that all of those changes over the two years will occur and so, consequently, nothing will be jeopardized. It's a technical thing but one that we want to make sure and avoid any E & R problems. This is the way the E & R committee and the Governor's fiscal and our fiscal staff feels the best way to make sure that all of those things we want done can be done in the proper order. That's the nature of the amendment.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Bernard-Stevens. Any discussion on the motion to return? Seeing none, a closing? Motion...the vote will be on whether LB 988A needs to be returned to Select File. All in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to return the bill.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The bill is returned. Senator Bernard-Stevens, on your amendment.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Thank you. Mr. Clerk, I just want to verify, we are talking about AM4370. Would that be correct?

CLERK: Yes, sir.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Okay. I explained the amendment on the motion to return, I would just urge its adoption.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Discussion? All in favor of the amendment vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record.

CLERK: 31 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of the Select File amendment.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The amendment is adopted. Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: I would like to readvance, move...make a motion to readvance the bill to E & R Final.

SPEAKER WITHEM: All in favor say aye. Opposed. It is